

Young Republicans of Philadelphia

Phila May 5th 1890

Col W. C. Bosbyshell,

Dept U. S. Mint,

my Dear Sir,

I have been working as Roller at the Mint since May 1st (through the kindness of your Appointment for the Young Republicans of Phila.)

The work is rather unclean and not healthy for me as I am not used to that kind of work. I write you this note to ask you if you could favor me by transferring me to some other Dept. where the work is cleaner. If you desire it my friends Mr E. S. Stuart, Mr Arthur Moore and Col Bowman would call on you in reference to transferring me. I am working this week from 3 o'clock P.M. to 11 o'clock P.M. in the Rolling Dept.

I am Very Respectfully Yours.
Sol Rains.
